THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PROFESSORS

The General Assembly of Professors exercises the highest educative authority in the School. It is composed only of full professors when authorities of the School or professors or under-professors or special professors of foreign languages or instructors are to be elected, or to qualify non - full professors, or to examine a question concerning a full or a non - full professor. When there is a question of a scientific or educative nature concerning the School, as well as in all the other matters, the General Assembly of Professors is composed of the honorary, emeritus, full and non - full professors and chartered under-professors (Lecturers).
